Attorneys for United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	Case No. CR 18-00164 CRB
Plaintiff,)	PROPOSED ORDER OF DETENTION OF
v.)	DEFENDANT RICHARD SOLLID
RICHARD SOLLID,)
Defendant.)

The defendant, Richard Sollid, came before the Court on May 29, 2018, for a detention hearing. The defendant was present and represented by his counsel, Assistant Federal Public Defender Elizabeth Falk. Assistant United States Attorney Robert Rees represented the United States.

The government requested detention, submitting that no condition or combination of conditions would assure the defendant's appearance at future proceedings or reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community. Pretrial Services submitted a report recommending detention on the basis that the defendant is a flight risk and a danger to the community.

1 Upon consideration of the Pretrial Services report, the court file, and the party proffers, the Court
2 finds on the present record that no condition or combination of conditions would reasonably assure the 3 safety of any other person or the community. The Court orders the defendant detained.

4 The present order supplements the Court's findings at the detention hearing and serves as written
5 findings of fact and statement of reasons as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i).

6 The Bail Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3141-3150, sets forth the factors which the Court
7 must consider in determining whether pretrial detention is warranted. In coming to its decision, the 8 Court has considered those factors, paraphrased below:

- 9 (1) the nature and seriousness of the offense charged;
10 (2) the weight of the evidence against the person;
11 (3) the history and characteristics of the person including, among other considerations,
12 employment, past conduct and criminal history, and records of court appearances; and
13 (4) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed
14 by the person's release.

15 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g).

16 Defendant Richard Sollid is charged in an indictment with a violation of Title 21, United States
17 Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(C) — Possession of Heroin with Intent to Distribute.

18 In considering all of the facts and proffers presented at the hearing, on the present record the 19 Court finds the following factors among the most compelling in reaching its conclusion that no
20 combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community:

21 First, the defendant has repeatedly violated his prior terms of supervision, including parole terms
22 and probation terms. Second, many of the defendant's previous violations have included allegations of 23 new criminal offenses, including the instant case. Third, the nature of the defendant's prior criminal
24 convictions raise safety concerns, including recent convictions for illegal gun possession, narcotics
25 trafficking, and burglary.

1 Accordingly, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

2 (1) the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a
3 corrections facility;

4 (2) the defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel;
5 and

6 (3) on order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the
7 person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant
8 to an authorized Deputy United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a 9 court proceeding.
